Garrells Won Three Firsts and a Second, Equaling Kraenzlein's Performance-Samse's Pole Vault.

In spite of the fact that one world record was broken and another equaled in the Western Intercollegiate track and field championship at Evanston, Ill., on Saturday, most of the performances were not only inferior to those of a year ago, but bordered on the mediocre The two shining exceptions were the pole vault in which Samse, of Indiana. cleared the bar at 12 feet 4% inches, and he high hurdle race of Garrells, the Michigan star, who equaled the world record of 15 1-5 seconds, held by Kraenzlein, of Pensylvania, and Chase, of Dartmouth

East Compares Favorably.

A comparison of the records made at Evanston with those the week before at Cambridge, is apt to mislead one into giving the Westerners more credit than they deserve. The weather conditions at Cambridge were responsible for the poor times in the Eastern meets, but ven with these handicaps, Cartmell, of Pennsylvania, won the 100-yards dash in precisely the same time as Hamilton, of Iowa State Normal, and Cartmell is a consistent 10 second man. In the mile and two-mile runs the Easterners had the better records and in the quar-ter and half-miles the Westerners led. though the same reasoning applied here would result in the advantage of the

In the broad jump, the fourth man a the Eastern meet did better than the winner in the West, while the Eastern winner was a foot ahead of the West-erner. The same was true in the high jump in which the fourth man at Cambridge did better than the winners in the West. In the shot put the same was partly true, the third man at the East rn meet beating the Western winner.

Garrells' Great Work.

in the pole vault, Garrells, Michigan's all-round phenomenon, deserves the honors of the meet. Besides equaling the world record over the high stick Garrells won the low hurdles and the shot put. He thus scored eighteen points for his college and equaled an other record made by Kraenzlein, when e great Pennsylvania athlete was first in the 100, and two hurdle races, and second in the broad jump at the Eastern intercollegiates in 1900

Garrells is certainly a wonderful athlete and, with the speed he exhibited in the high hurdles, ought to have been able to win the 190-yards in 16 seconds flat.

GANS AND LEWIS MAY FIGHT AT CHELSEA

NEW YORK. June 4.-Owing to the fact that the fighting game has been stopped in this city, it is probable the bout between Joe Gans and Willie Lewis will take place at Chelsea. Both boxers have received an offer from the Lincoin Athletic Club, but up to the present have not accepted. If the bout takes place at Chelsea it will go fifteen rounds, instead of ten, as originally scheduled.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 4.-A great reception was tendered the crew of the yawl Tamerlane, which arrived yesterday afternoon, thereby winning the race from Gravesend Bay for the Lipton cup.
